Note: Students have a maximum of 6 years to complete all course requirements, including field statements, oral examinations, and language requirements after which they will officially and automatically advance to candidacy. Upon advancement to doctoral candidacy, students must remain continuously enrolled for a minimum of one credit per semester in CULT 998 or 999. Students must file their dissertation proposals before enrolling in CULT 999. Although it is desirable that dissertations be filed in due course, students have a maximum of nine years after their admit term to complete the dissertation.
