

COURSE SYLLABUS

This course will introduce students to the arts of the ancient and medieval Mediterranean world. We will study the great monuments, the cultural background, and persistent themes of western art, through slide lectures, reading, and assigned exercises and discussion. We will also discuss how archeologists and art museums work, and the ways they teach us to understand the past. This course has no prerequisites and presumes no prior knowledge of Art History.

This course fulfills the University General Education requirement in the Arts.

COURSE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES. In this course, students will:

- Learn the standard major periods of ancient and medieval western art.
- Learn to recognize major monuments from each period.
- Learn to write about art and architecture, using standard academic terms.
- Study the relationship between the history and visual culture of each period.
- Become familiar with some of the Washington DC area's museums.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

- Class attendance, with occasional in-class exercises.
- Assigned readings, including websites and documents on the Internet.
- A required map exercise, done in class, and possibly a second class exercise.
- One self-guided visit to a major local art museum.
- One short (5pp.) paper based on museum visits, done and submitted in two drafts.
- Two midterm tests and a final exam.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS:

- GMU email accounts—only GMU accounts will get announcements and grading access.
- Ability to find and print on-line text documents from the Internet and Blackboard.
- Computerized word-processing with spell-checkers and decent printers for all written work.

TEXTBOOK: I require the use of Marilyn Stokstad and Michael Cothren, Art History, Part 1 for this course. I recommend you purchase the 5th edition, Part 1, in paperback, Kindle or loose-leaf. It's for sale in the GMU bookstore in all three formats. But please feel free to use any older edition of Stokstad's Art History you can find—I know textbooks are expensive. Please note that Stokstad's Art History Part 2 is not appropriate for this course. It covers later periods. Stokstad & Cothren's Art: A Brief History is not appropriate for this course either. You need Art History, Part 1; or if you like, get the whole darned thing, Parts 1 & 2, in one big hardcover volume.

Additional on-line readings primary source readings may be required as well. URLs will be announced in class and linked to the course Blackboard site.

HOW TO REACH ME:

- Email: lbutler@gmu.edu. No more private office phone, sorry. Budget cuts.
- To leave a voicemail message: History and Art History Department office at (703) 993-1250.
- Office hours: Tuesdays and Thursdays 1:45 to 2:45, Wednesdays 3-4:00, or by appointment.
- Office: Robinson B340, deep inside the History and Art History Department.

TENTATIVE LECTURE AND READING SCHEDULE

Section 002 meets Tuesdays and Thursdays, 3:00 to 4:15, in Robinson B113.

Reading should be done just before or just after the lecture; by the test, at the latest. "Stokstad" refers to Marilyn Stokstad & Michael Cothren, Art History, 5th edition, Part 1. If you are using an older edition of Stokstad, Art History, that's fine. Just find the appropriate chapters, which are numbered a little differently. Also be sure to study for tests from my on-line review Powerpoints.

FINAL EXAM: Thursday, May 7, 1:30 to 4:15.

Please note:

The map and other class exercises will be done and due in class, on days of my choosing. If you miss class, you'll still need to hand in the completed map.

Museum paper due dates will be assigned in class. I will make special arrangements for students going to New York on the Arts Bus so they can do their research at the Metropolitan Museum.

CLASS POLICIES

Attendance is necessary; much of the material will only be covered in our lectures. You are responsible for getting notes, and for all consequences of missed classes. Class participation will affect your grade, if it is conspicuously good, conspicuously lacking, or continually disruptive. I will be making spot checks of attendance—they're not perfect, but they help us both recognize a pattern.

Classroom atmosphere. Courtesy and common sense, please. Talking to friends during lectures, wandering in and out, cell phones, and eating food are all distracting to everyone else. I am allowed by the University to toss disruptive students out. Please do not eat food during lectures—it's horrible!

Written work is a major part of the course, and will count heavily towards your final grade. Please study the explanation of my writing standards, attached to this syllabus. In short: Papers must be written in good formal English, with full documentation in a standard format such as MLA or Chicago. All students are expected to use word-processors with spell-checkers. Spelling and grammar count. Please submit papers typed, double-spaced, and PROOFREAD. Badly written work will be downgraded, returned for a rewrite, or flunked, as I see most appropriate.

No email submissions of papers, except in special cases with my prior permission. Written work is due in hard copy in class on the due date. Papers are not "on time" until I receive them in hard copy.

Laptop computers are fine for taking notes in class. No Facebook, Solitaire, etc. Phones will be turned off at all times, of course, as a courtesy to all. No computers or telephones may be used during tests.

Late work will be graded down five points per weekday and ten points over a weekend. Plan ahead--last-minute hard-disk and printer failures are your problem, and do not constitute legitimate excuses. By the final exam, all missing work becomes F work. Make-up tests and elaborate medical excuses will require verification with a physician's or associate dean's excuse. There will be no make-up final exams.

English as a Second Language: If English is not your first language, I will be happy to help you do your best in the writing assignments--by previewing papers, offering extra help, that sort of thing. But the final result must be written in good standard English. Please work with The Writing Center. See their web page for English language help, at: <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/>. Look for the ESL (English as Second Language) tab.

Learning disabilities. If you are a student with disabilities, and you need academic accommodations, please see me and contact the Office of Disabilities Resources (ODS) or 703-993-2474. All academic accommodations must be arranged through that office. Visit their website: <http://ods.gmu.edu>.

Religious holidays. I have planned this course according to the George Mason University calendar. If you observe a religious holiday that the University does not, please let me know and I will make necessary accommodations for you (but not for the whole class).

Auditors are welcome to sit and listen, if there is room. If you would like to participate more actively, that's fine with me if (!!) you are keeping up with the assigned class reading. Otherwise, please be quiet.

Please, no gifts! Thanks, but I cannot accept them. They make honest grading awkward.

Academic honesty is expected in all tests and writing, according the GMU Honor Code. "Student members of the George Mason University community pledge not to cheat, plagiarize, steal, or lie in matters related to academic work," according to the official website, <http://academicintegrity.gmu.edu/honorcode/>. Please respect the Honor Code, our classroom standards, your fellow students, and yourself. Please report violations to the Honor Committee, using the procedures explained in the website. See the explanation of plagiarism, and how to avoid it, in the guidelines for writing.

GRADING POLICIES

TESTS must be taken on the scheduled date. If there has been an emergency, it must be documented by a note from the dean's office or your doctor. In those cases, there will be one make-up test given, probably during the subsequent class. Tests will be graded by percentage. Grades will be calculated as follows:

A	= 100% to 93%, or 4.00	B-	= 82% to 80 %, or 2.67	D	= 60% to 66%, or 1.0
A-	= 92% to 90%, or 3.67	C+	= 79% to 77 %, or 2.33	F	= below 60% and receives no credit
B+	= 89% to 87%, or 3.33	C	= 76% to 73 %, or 2.00
B	= 86% to 83 %, or 3.00	C-	= 72% to 70 %, or 1.67

I may award a final A+ in rare instances: 4.0 average plus unusually good writing and class participation.

WRITTEN WORK may be graded by points, or by the following criteria, as appropriate:

A = Startlingly good, exceeding our expectations, and well-written. Must be imaginative; NOT given for simply following directions.

B = Good effort with a good result.

C = Perfunctory; or, tried but missed the point; or, did something well but it wasn't the assignment; or, good idea but careless or sloppy.

D = Warning: accepted under protest.

F = Unacceptable as college-level work.

Paper grades will be lowered for lateness, sloppiness, lack of proofreading, bad English, lack of necessary documentation, faulty logic, or failure to follow directions for the assignment. Please study the directions for writing assignments, elsewhere in this syllabus.

Late written work: Papers are due in class in hard copy on the day specified. After that, late papers will be lowered five points a day, or half a grade, during the work week (Mon-Fri) and lowered ten points over a weekend. Note that this makes even the best work "F" work after about ten days. If you need an extension, you must ask for it before the due date, not on or after, if you want to avoid a penalty.

Ungraded work: Maps and other ungraded exercises will be given checks, pluses or minuses only; when figuring up your final grade, these will help us determine borderline grades. Missing maps will result in a lowering of your final grade by 5 points per item.

Class participation grade: Normal class participation—showing up on time, keeping up with classwork, participating in group activities, not causing problems--will be figured as "B" level. Great class participation will be graded "A". Problematic will be graded "C" or lower, heaven forbid.

FINAL GRADES will be based on the average of your paper, test and class grades. Each assignment will be weighted thus:

Test 1:	10 %	Paper, first draft	15%
Test 2:	20%	Paper, final draft	20%
Final exam:	25%	Participation (map, attendance)	10%

Final grades may be raised or lowered from strict average in the following circumstances:

- A pattern of pluses or minuses on ungraded assignments;
- I may raise or lower your grade in recognition of significant change over the course of the semester.
- THE MUSEUM PAPER MUST BE TURNED IN TO PASS THE CLASS. If no draft of the paper is received by the final exam, then don't even bother to show up at the final exam. Course failed.
- TWO PIECES OF GRADED WORK MISSING AT THE END OF THE COURSE WILL BE GROUNDS FOR FAILING THE COURSE REGARDLESS OF YOUR PRECISE AVERAGE.
- IF YOU FLUNK THE FINAL EXAM, WITH AN F ON ANOTHER MAJOR (20%) PIECE OF WORK, YOU WILL RECEIVE A FAILING GRADE FOR THE WHOLE COURSE. To pass this course you must demonstrate mastery of the material from all parts of the course.
