

JAMES CONDO

330-415-9588 | jcondo@gmu.edu | Fairfax, VA 22030

EDUCATION

George Mason University, Fairfax, VA

December 2022

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology

GPA: 4.0

WORK EXPERIENCE

Substitute Teacher, Fairfax County Public Schools, Fairfax, VA

January 2023 – Present

- Assist absent educators by providing continuity in teaching materials and following educator instructions
- Engage in various tasks to aid administration such as attendance, and lunch and recess supervision
- Exhibit flexibility and professionalism in daily operations as a substitute at any secondary school location in the county

Communications Specialist, Next System Studies, George Mason University, Fairfax, VA

September 2022 – Present

- Compose monthly newsletters for Next System Studies, communicating with academics and activists around the United States
- Design aesthetically appealing and accessible web and email content for Next System Studies
- Manage web content on the University website to maintain positive and recognizable brand presence for initiative

Office Assistant, Information Sciences and Technology, George Mason University, Fairfax, VA

March 2022 – December 2022

- Assist information technology students with important documents, inquiries, scheduling difficulties, and major changes
- Operate front desk as receptionist for the department and answer incoming phone calls with excellent customer service
- Compose faculty meeting minutes and deliver these throughout the department

Indigenous Environmental Mapping Researcher, George Mason University, Fairfax, VA

May 2022 – August 2022

- Collaborated with Chickahominy and Upper Mattaponi tribal leaders on socio-environmental data collection and management
- Analyzed data on tribal well-being and presented data through statistical modeling
- Consulted the Indigenous partners on the implications of the survey data on environmental management

Arlington Next System Fellow, George Mason University, Arlington, VA

January 2022 – May 2022

- Trained in the emerging field of next system studies, the study of potential alternative economies
- Built a database with Democratizing Northern Virginia, a community-engaged research project studying democratization initiatives
- Coauthored report on the state of pro-democracy initiatives in the Northern Virginia Region

Summer Research Intern, GMU Engineering Education and Cyberlearning Lab, Fairfax, VA

May 2021 – August 2021

- Conducted research on the ethics of artificial intelligence and transparent design
- Analyzed qualitative data of student discussions to reveal patterns in language about privacy and transparency
- Communicated results via a report on student lived experience with opaque technologies

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

Seeds of Change Outstanding Partnership Award, Social Action and Integrative Learning, George Mason University

April 2022

- Received recognition for community engagement with Democratizing Northern Virginia project

Outstanding Sociology Undergraduate Award, Sociology and Anthropology, George Mason University

April 2022

- Received recognition for outstanding academic achievement and civic engagement

Alpha Kappa Delta, Sociology and Anthropology, George Mason University

April 2021

- Inducted into the International Sociological Honors Society for academic achievement

University Scholarship, Honors College, George Mason University

March 2019

- Awarded full-tuition scholarship given to top 1% of George Mason University Honors College applicants

SKILLS

- Software: RStudio, Stata, ArcGIS, Adobe Suite