

Department of Criminology, Law and Society

CRIM 796: DIRECTED READING REQUEST FORM

INSTRUCTIONS: Directed reading courses involve independent reading at doctoral level on specific topic related to justice, law, or crime policy as agreed to by student and faculty member and approved by the Director of Graduate Programs. CRIM 796 can be taken for a letter grade, or satisfactory/no credit. Students must successfully complete 12 graduate level CRIM credits before enrolling in a CRIM 796 course. Students must obtain the instructor's signature and submit this form to the Director of Graduate Programs at least two weeks before the beginning of the semester to receive approval. Once approved, the Graduate Program Coordinator will create the CRIM 796 and provide the course registration number (CRN) to the student so they can add the course via Patriot Web.

Student Name	G Number	Date of Request
--------------	----------	-----------------

Directed Reading Instructor	Semester of enrollment	Grading Scale
-----------------------------	------------------------	---------------

Title of Course (max 30 characters)

Please select where this course should be applied:

☐ Analytical Methods Elective ☐ Elective

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Please describe the topic of the directed reading. A list of requirements, key readings, deadlines, etc. should be attached to this form.

SIGNATURES

Student	Signature	Date
---------	-----------	------

Directed Reading Instructor	Signature	Date
-----------------------------	-----------	------

Director of Graduate Programs	Signature	Date
-------------------------------	-----------	------