Instructions: When choosing courses for your contract and selecting a Concentration Title consider these questions to help guide you: What are your goals and how will knowledge from this program of study help you reach these goals? How do the courses complement each other and support your title? Please make sure to include your Concentration Title which will be printed on your diploma.
Concentration Requirements: 34 – 46 semester hours (including required BIS courses). At least 25 hours must be upper-division (300, 400, 500, or 600 level; max 6 hours 500-600 level) and 25 credits must be from George Mason University. No more than 9 transfer credits can be included in the concentration. The concentration courses must not include general education course requirements. Courses already completed or in progress may be included. It is the student's responsibility to be sure that all prerequisites are met before taking the courses listed.
 In order to graduate all students must meet Mason's requirement of 120 total credits and 45 upper-level credits. Concentration Title: (max 50 characters)

BIS Educational Contract

Alternative Courses: Below you should list alternative courses that can be taken if, for reasons beyond your control, you are unable to take one or more of the concentration courses listed on the front of this form.

Alternative courses should be from the same discipline or academic focus as the courses for which they substitute (PSYC for PSYC, social science for social science, etc.).

At least one alternative is suggested for each concentration discipline.

Should it become necessary to use an approved alternate course, you must contact a BIS academic advisor to initiate the substitution. Changes in this Educational Contract other than the above approved alternate courses require a BIS Contract Amendment. Contract Amendments require the signature of your BIS Faculty Mentor and must be approved by the BIS Director.
