

Mason is updating the B.A. Foreign Language sequence in FALL 2018!

This may affect your course choices for spring and summer 2018.

In order to best serve students in any B. A. programs with a Foreign Language requirement, the Modern and Classical Languages department will be offering a two course intermediate sequence. Starting in fall 2018, 210 Foreign Language courses (SPAN 210, CHIN 210, GERM 210, etc.) will no longer be offered.

This means that students will demonstrate intermediate proficiency in their language of study by completing a 202 language course or higher, or appropriate placement exam score.

If you are taking a 110 or 115 language course this fall, please sign up for 210 in spring 2018.

The last time 210 courses in any language will be offered is spring or summer 2018. Beginning in fall 2018, students will be required to successfully complete 202 (or above), either by placing into the course or completing the 110/ 115 and 201 sequence in their language of study.
