POLICIES

Transfer of Credit

Students who have prior graduate course work that has not been applied to another degree may request to have a maximum of 12 of these graduate credits transferred to their degree program, with approval of the Graduate Director and Dean and in accordance with the Graduate Policies section of the Catalog.

Reduction of Credits

Students entering the master's program with a previously conferred graduate degree in a related discipline may request that the required credits for the MA degree be reduced by a maximum of 12 credits with approval of the Graduate Director and Dean and in accordance with the Graduate Policies section of the Catalog.

Satisfactory Progress

Students who fail to make satisfactory progress may be terminated from the program. Satisfactory progress in the MA in Criminology, Law and Society is defined as maintaining a minimum GPA of 3.00 with the minimum grade of B- in all courses. Students who receive a grade below B- will receive an academic warning the first time and a letter of termination the second time.
