

Contact

www.linkedin.com/in/sarah-l-sweetman-74239713 (LinkedIn) reachyourlife.com (Company) newpathdesigns.com (Company)

Top Skills

Student Affairs
Student Development
Teaching

Sarah L. Sweetman

Special education, adoption studies, memory studies, disability studies, skin care, jewelry artist, higher education
Centreville, Virginia

Experience

Rodan + Fields
Independent Consultant
February 2016 - Present

Fairfax County Public Schools
Special Education Teacher
August 2014 - Present

New Path Designs
Owner & Artist
November 2010 - Present

I own New Path Designs and also design & create all our products. New Path Designs offers engaging handmade jewelry, accessories, and home decor for discerning creative individuals.

George Mason University
6 years 11 months

Director of Student Services, New Century College
November 2006 - June 2010 (3 years 8 months)

Supervise academic advising office for integrative studies college

Coordinate college admissions, recruiting, and orientation activities

Design and implement student development and academic success activities for college living/learning community

Facilitate opportunities for student leadership development

Collaborate with academic affairs and student affairs offices throughout Mason campuses

Graduate Teaching Assistant
August 2003 - November 2006 (3 years 4 months)

Taught learning communities including integrative freshman general education courses, senior capstone, and introductory leadership studies

Coordinated credit-bearing internship program serving several departments and colleges on campus

Academic Advising of undergraduate students from entrance into 4-year institution through graduation

Planned and coordinated national joint conference for the Association of Integrative Studies and the Association for General and Liberal Studies

Education

George Mason University

Master of Education (M.Ed.), Special Education and Teaching · (2013 - 2016)

George Mason University

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.), Cultural Studies · (2003 - 2013)

George Mason University

MAIS, Culture, Conflict, Religion & Education · (2001 - 2003)

Colorado State University

BA, Liberal Arts - Social Sciences, Anthropology concentration · (1993 - 1997)

Fort Hays State University

· (1990 - 1992)