

Japanese placement questions:

1. Are you able to read and write the Japanese alphabets, Hiragana and Katakana?
2. Are you able to introduce yourself briefly in Japanese using the polite speech style?
3. Are you able to talk about routine and future actions in Japanese using polite present form of verbs and appropriate particles (に、を、へ、で、と)?
4. Are you able to talk about past actions and events in Japanese using the polite past form of verbs?
5. Are you able to make sentences by connecting verb and adjective phrases and sentences in Japanese using the て-form of verbs and adjectives?
6. Are you able to read and write 25 or more kanji?

If you answered 'yes,' to the above questions #1-6, you may register for JAPA201.

7. Are you able to talk about your likes and dislikes in Japanese using すき or きらい, and make comparisons using いちばん, ~ほうが, ~より, and ~も~も?
8. Are you able to express desire in Japanese using ほしい and ~たい?
9. Are you able to express quantities with numbers and counters in Japanese using まい, 本, ひき, さつ and Japanese origin numbers ~つ?
10. Are you able to read and write 75 or more kanji?

If you answered 'yes,' to the above questions #1-10, you may register for JAPA 202.

11. Are you able to introduce your family and describe them in Japanese in terms of their clothing, physical appearance and skills?
12. Are you able to express your opinions in Japanese using the dictionary/informal form of verbs + おもいます?
13. Are you able to talk about routine, past and future activities and events in Japanese using the casual form?
14. Are you able to read and write 120 or more kanji?

If you answered 'yes,' to the above questions #1-14, you may register for JAPA 330.