Honor Code and Certification

George Mason University shares in the tradition of an honor system that has existed in Virginia since 1842. The Honor Code is an integral part of university life. To promote a stronger sense of mutual responsibility, respect, trust, and fairness among all members of the George Mason University community and with the desire for greater academic and personal achievement, we, the student members of the University Community have set forth this:

Student members of the George Mason University community pledge not to cheat, plagiarize, steal, and/or lie in matters related to academic work.

A full copy of The Mason Honor Code can be found at http://oai.gmu.edu/mason-honor-code/

I have read and will accept the terms and responsibilities of the Honor Code if I am approved for admission to George Mason University.

I agree

If you were given a special application code, please enter it here (examples of these programs include China 1-2-1, Mason Korea, the Smithsonian-Mason School of Conservation, DC College Application Month, Virginia College Application Week, the Military Pre-Medical Certificate, etc.).
