

MAIS Women & Gender Studies BAM Advising Form

BAM applicants will complete this form in consultation with their undergraduate academic advisor and the Interdisciplinary Studies BAM Coordinator. This form must be submitted with the online application.

Applicant name
Applicant G number
Applicant email
Applicant major, concentration, minor, as applicable

STEP 1: Undergraduate Academic Advising

The applicant should meet with their undergraduate academic advisor to discuss eligibility and course planning. The BAM Planning Form can be used to assist in planning. Advisor should sign below.

STEP 2: Graduate Academic Advising

The applicant should meet with the Interdisciplinary Studies BAM Coordinator to continue discussion of program.

Items to Discuss
1. Credits awarded (final grades posted) to date: _____ Applicants must have completed a minimum of 60 credits toward their bachelor's degree.
2. Courses remaining for undergraduate degree. Use the BAM Planning Form to identify remaining requirements.
3. Interdisciplinary Studies Application Requirements: <input type="checkbox"/> Minimum 3.5 GPA <input type="checkbox"/> Goal statement <input type="checkbox"/> Writing sample <input type="checkbox"/> 2 letters of recommendation from faculty <input type="checkbox"/> 1 letter of recommendation from undergraduate advisor <input type="checkbox"/> Deadlines to submit application materials (Spring 10/15, Fall 2/15)
4. Scheduling graduate courses. Applicants should refer to their BAM Planning Form.
5. Graduate courses available to take as an undergraduate. Note at right whether a course will count towards both the undergraduate and graduate degrees (advanced standing) OR towards the graduate degree alone (reserve graduate credit).	Advanced Standing	Reserve Graduate Credit
WMST 504 Gender, Sexuality and Disability
WMST 508 Gender, Sexuality and Human Rights
WMST 602 Queer Theory
WMST 610 Feminist Approaches to Social Research
WMST 630 Feminist Theories
WMST 640 Transnational Issues of Gender and Race
6. Timing	Term
Anticipated undergraduate degree conferral:
Submission of BAM Transition Form (by last day to add of conferral term):
Anticipated start as a fully realized graduate student:

Undergraduate Advisor Name _____

Undergraduate Advisor Signature/Date _____

Applicant Signature/Date _____

MAIS BAM Coordinator Signature/Date _____