

2021 F.A. Hayek Essay Contest

The Economics Department is sponsoring the F.A. Hayek Essay Contest with a first-place award of $500 and a second-place award of $250. This contest is open to all undergraduate economics students (major and minor). Prior award winners are ineligible for this contest. To enter this contest, students must write an economics essay discussing the topic:

FA Hayek argued that: The curious task of economics is to demonstrate to men how little they really know about what they imagine they can design.

Please include the following in your essay:
