VPA SIOP Breakfast Fact Sheet

Leadership for 2018-2019: Jenna Eagleson (Director), Katie Guarino (Training and Development Coordinator), Katelyn McCoy (Client Coordinator)

Leadership for 2019-2020: Leo Dubovoy & Caitlin Rodgers (Co-Directors), Emily Kimble (Training and Development), Haylee Gans (Client Coordinator)

Faculty Advisor: Dr. Reeshad Dalal

Active GMU VPA Consultants: 14 Master's students

*Trained 14 new consultants for 2018-2019

GMU VPA Clients in 2018-2019: 14 completed, 4 current

Equine Therapy Centers (n = 3): Chesapeake Therapeutic Riding, High Hopes Therapeutic Riding, & Phoenix Equestrian Warriors

Health and Human Services Organizations (n = 1): Catholic Charities of Washington

Police Departments (n = 1): Anacortes Police Department

*Animal Shelters made up 64% of GMU VPA clients in 2018.

More Information about GMU VPA Clients 2018-2019

- GMU VPA has 4 currently active client projects.
- In 2018, GMU provided services for 2 locally acquired clients (Chesapeake Therapeutic Riding and Catholic Charities of Washington) and 12 clients referred from UNCC.
- GMU consultants served 3 returning clients who wanted to repeat the VPA.
Developments, Accomplishments, and Challenges in 2018-2019

1. Expanded on consultant training program and a shadowing process for new consultants, including team-based VPA consultations.
2. Completed the VPA with two chapter-recruited clients and heard from three more that were unable to complete the VPA at present.