

BE PART OF AMERICA'S FIRST MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

THE PHILLIPS COLLECTION Paid Internships

The Phillips Collection prioritizes diversity, equity, accessibility, and inclusion. As part of our endeavor to cultivate a diverse workforce and incubate creativity and innovation, we are excited to announce the launch of our paid internship program.

In addition to receiving hands-on, in-depth professional experience in many aspects of arts and non-profit administration, our interns receive mentorship and networking opportunities to expand their career trajectory.

Visit PhillipsCollection.org/paid-internships to apply.

We value applicants from all backgrounds and perspectives who have great interest in the areas of:

- Academic Affairs
- Conservation
- Curatorial
- Development
- Membership
- Education and Community Engagement
- Human Resources
- Library and Archives
- Marketing and Communications
- Music
- Registrar
- Special Events

