I understand that by applying to one of the College of Visual and Performing Arts (CVPA) majors at George Mason University I am required to also schedule and complete a successful portfolio or audition for admission into the major.* A successful audition or portfolio review does not imply admission to the University. CVPA applicants must be offered admission to both the University and to the major of choice.

CVPA portfolio and audition instructions can be found here: https://cvpa.gmu.edu/admissions/undergraduate-admissions. Portfolio reviews and auditions may be held on- or off-campus. Applicants must follow audition or portfolio submission instructions at the link above to schedule an audition or submit a portfolio following submission of the admissions application. Questions and concerns may be directed to gmuarts@gmu.edu or directly to the department of choice.

I understand I must submit my portfolio or register for an audition by the deadlines below. Portfolio submissions and audition registrations after the deadlines are at the departments' discretion.

- Early Action: Admission application due November 1st, CVPA materials submitted or audition scheduled by November 7th
- Regular Decision: Admission application due February 1st, CVPA materials submitted or audition scheduled by February 7th

13. 동의하기

George Mason University shares in the tradition of an honor system that has existed in Virginia since 1842. The Honor Code is an integral part of university life. To promote a stronger sense of mutual responsibility, respect, trust, and fairness among all members of the George Mason University community and with the desire for greater academic and personal achievement, we, the student members of the University Community have set forth this:

Student members of the George Mason University community pledge not to cheat, plagiarize, steal, and/or lie in matters related to academic work.

A full copy of The Mason Honor Code can be found at http://oai.gmu.edu/mason-honor-code/

• I have read and will accept the terms and responsibilities of the Honor Code if I am approved for admission to George Mason University.

◉ I agree
