

MA in Global Affairs

Foreign Language Proficiency Application Requirement

Overview

All applicants to the Global Affairs MA must present evidence of professional proficiency in a foreign language (other than English) that is widely used in contemporary international communication. This application requirement is handled on a case-by-case basis between applicants and the Global Affairs Program.

Instructions

In addition to indicating on the online application how you plan to present evidence of language proficiency, you must also submit this form with attached evidence to globalma@gmu.edu for the given term that you have been admitted to.

Full Name:

Email:

Admitted Term:

Please select one of the below options:

I completed a 202-level language courses or higher at George Mason and my transcript will serve as my evidence of foreign language proficiency.

I have a bachelor's degree in a foreign language and my transcript will serve as my evidence of foreign language proficiency.

I have a minor in a foreign language and my transcript will serve as my evidence of foreign language proficiency.

I did not complete a bachelor's degree or minor in a foreign language, but successfully completed foreign language coursework at the advanced level and my transcript will serve as my evidence of foreign language proficiency.

I graduated from an accredited:

Secondary institution where the language of instruction was not English, and my transcript or diploma will serve as my evidence of foreign language proficiency.

Post-secondary institution where the language of instruction was not English, and my transcript or diploma will serve as my evidence of foreign language proficiency.

I have taken the online Oral Proficiency Exam through the Language Testing International \(LTI\) to demonstrate my foreign language proficiency and my passing result will serve as my evidence of foreign language competency.

I plan to complete the foreign language proficiency during my time in the Global Affairs MA and have received approval from the Global Affairs Program. Please attach a screenshot copy of the approval that was provided to you via email.