

ARTH 303 / HIST 388: Visualizing Irish Nationalism

Instructor: Laura McCloskey

Term: Spring 2018, Online course

Email: lmcclosk@gmu.edu

Office Hours: Blackboard Collaborate, Mondays 11am-12pm

Description and Goals

What does it mean to be Irish? Can we discern Irish identity from a flag, a shamrock, a harp, or an image of St. Patrick? This course attempts to answer these questions by exploring the rich visual traditions of Ireland. To aid in our analysis, we will survey historical documents, political analysis, and literature during the long and difficult quest for Irish national identity from ancient times to the present. We will begin with the Irish search for a cultural and linguistic identity in the pages of medieval manuscripts, charge ahead through the warrior symbolism surrounding Brian Boru and Cuchulain, peer over the dramatic artwork and writings of the Yeats family, and end with the visceral paintings of contemporary Irish artists.

Texts and Readings

There are three required texts for this course as well as numerous articles available through the Mason library databases.

Required:

- 1) English, Richard. 2008. Irish Freedom: The History of Nationalism in Ireland. Reprint. Macmillan UK. ISBN 978-0330427593
- 2) Moody, T. W., F. X. Martin, and Dermot Keogh. 2001. The Course of Irish History. Fourth ed. Roberts Rinehart. ISBN 978-1589790025
- 3) Barber, Fionna, 2013. Art in Ireland Since 1910. University of Chicago Press. ISBN: 9781780230368

Recommended:

- 1) Fallon, Brian. 2002. Irish Art 1830-1990. Appletree Press. ISBN 978-0862818074
- 2) Mays, Michael. 2007. Nation States: The Cultures of Irish Nationalism. Lexington Books. ISBN 978-0739121177

Assignments and Grading

The bulk of your grade will be determined by your performance on the quizzes, final exam, and the research paper. For the research paper you will need to develop and execute an original thesis related to a theme from class (more on this shortly). In addition to the optional extra credit assignment, each quiz and the final will also have extra credit opportunities.

Here is how your grade will be calculated:

Quizzes (2) – 20% (10% each)	Online Discussions (5)- 10% (2% each)
Research paper abstract – 10%	Final Exam- 20%
Research paper (8-10 pages)- 20%	Movie Paper (2-3 pages) - 10%
Individual Reflections (5) – 10% (2% each)	Optional extra credit- 5%

Grading Scale

A+ = 101 and above
A = 95 -100	C+ = 77-80
A- = 91-94	C = 73-76
B+ = 87-90	C- = 69-72
B = 84-86	D = 65-68
B- = 81-83	F = 64 and below

Research paper

Develop and execute an original thesis related to a theme from class.

- Finding a topic: Start by looking at the key concepts and terms from class or that you find in your reading. Think broadly then narrow down to come to your thesis. (Choose something that you will actually enjoy researching.)

For this paper, I would like you to choose one of the following time periods in Irish history and analyze a social, political, or artistic/literary development of your choice that helped to define Irish identity during that period:

- Medieval Ireland and the Gaelic Resurgence- The late 19th century through 1922
- The Troubles
- Early English rule (18th and 19th centuries) - 1922 through the early 1960s
- 1998 through the present

Topics could address: Who are the major characters involved? What other countries or outside influences played a role in this stage of identity formation? How was this time period similar or different to those immediately preceding and following? What were the significant cultural changes or movements involved? What iconic symbols emerged or changed during this period? If you have a specific topic, person, or issue you would like to address, just let me know in your abstract so I can make sure it isn't too narrow or unwieldy.

You will need to use at least 5 sources: 3 of which cannot be class texts, include at least 1 primary source. MLA or Chicago style (not APA), 12pt font, double-spaced, 8-10 pages excluding bibliography.

- "Draft:" paper abstract, outline, or draft. At minimum, I need to know your thesis, supports, and at least 3 of your references (2 must be books or articles - not websites). Submit on Blackboard.

- Final paper: 8-10 pages (not including bibliography or any images you wish to include). Use a citation style that is familiar to you – in this discipline, that's usually either MLA or Chicago... whatever style you choose, do it correctly. At least 5 scholarly sources. Submit on Blackboard.

Movie Paper

Watch a movie related to Irish history and write a 2-3 page paper in which you summarize the movie and provide your analysis regarding its historical accuracy. Use our class readings to support your argument. Movie suggestions are listed on Blackboard. Please be sure that you have an introduction (with thesis), body, conclusion, and bibliography.

Quizzes

Quizzes will usually consist of ten multiple choice questions and two short answer responses. They are NOT open note or open book.

Final Exam

The exam will be a combination of multiple choice questions and short answer responses. In addition, you will have to write two brief essays chosen from a list of topics. The exam is NOT open note or open book.

Individual Blackboard Reflections

Prompts for individual comments related to the previous or current week's lecture, readings, or course progress will be loaded to the Blackboard discussion board tab. You must complete all 5 reflections to receive full grade points for this category. Reflections should be at least one paragraph in length (7-8 well-planned, cohesive sentences) and clearly demonstrate to me that you are actively engaging with course lectures, themes, and readings.

Blackboard Group Forum Participation

Prompts for activities will also be loaded to the Blackboard discussion board tab. While the course can largely be self-paced, the topics build on each other; taking content week-by-week helps you break it into manageable chunks. There is a good deal of complicated vocabulary in the course – engaging with others while practicing the terms is a great way to build fluency. (It also ensures that you're on target for what will be tested at each quiz.)

You must reply to at least one classmate by the deadline for each discussion or you will not receive points for that assignment. You must complete all 5 discussions to receive full grade points for this category.

Class Policies

Participation/Attendance- I have built in numerous participation checkpoints for you in the curriculum: given the unique nature of online instruction, participation is more important than ever – it shows me that you are following the course themes and truly comprehending material. The Mason catalog states: "Students are expected to attend class periods of the courses for which they register. In-class participation is important not only to the individual student, but also the class as a whole. Because class participation may be a factor in grading, instructors may use absence, tardiness, or early departure as de facto evidence of nonparticipation." Patterns of non-participation in self-reflection or group work will be noted and points deducted accordingly. If you are ill for two weeks or more (consecutively) or you have other personal matters that will require you to frequently miss participation deadlines, you should let me know immediately and provide a doctor note or other acceptable documentation.

Disability Assistance- Mason has a wonderful Office of Disability Services on the main floor of SUB I; if you have a documentable learning disability, I urge you to pay the ODS a visit early in the semester. I am happy to work with you to accommodate your needs, but I will need written documentation from the ODS. <http://ods.gmu.edu/>

Writing Center- If you need some assistance in writing your research paper or would like to attend study skills workshops, please do not hesitate to take advantage of the resources on campus. The Writing Center is in Robinson Hall A room 114. <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/>

Academic Workshops - Academic Workshop schedules can be found in Learning Services within Counseling and Psychological Services on the 3rd floor of SUB I.

Office Hours - I will have a Blackboard Collaborate office hour every Monday from 11am - 12pm. If that time does not work for you or if you have a private concern, I am flexible – just let me know a day ahead of time when you would like to chat via email or Skype. Additionally, you are always welcome to make an appointment with me to go over your progress in class or request assistance with your papers: I'm here to help. <http://caps.gmu.edu/> Please be aware that I live in Dublin, Ireland; be considerate of the time difference – Ireland is five hours ahead.

Email and Course Communication - Because this is an online course, it is critical that you have a reliable way to obtain course information. Please be sure that you check your GMU email account regularly or have your GMU email messages forwarded to your preferred email account. Every week I will send out an email to the entire class to remind you of items that are due, answer any common questions that have come up in the past week, or include other pertinent announcements. If I need to send a message to you individually, I will send it to your GMU email account. Please note that if you have trouble with your GMU email, you can also use the messaging feature in Blackboard if necessary.

Honor Code

Abiding by the Mason Honor Code is essential if you plan on passing this course.

The Honor Code, as stated in the catalog:

"Student members of the George Mason University community pledge not to cheat, plagiarize, steal, or lie in matters related to academic work."

Academic Integrity: <http://oai.gmu.edu/>

FAQ regarding the Honor Code: <http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code-2/>

Late Work

Individual Reflection Journals can be completed for full points any time until May 5th. After that date, you will not receive credit for any late reflection posts. Discussion Forum posts and replies must be completed by the end of the week in which they are assigned in the class schedule. You will not receive points for late posts or replies because this distracts from the point of the assignment (similar to how you cannot receive participation points in a face-to-face class when you are absent). The quizzes will be available from Monday to Sunday, 11:59pm in the weeks in which they are assigned. The final exam will also be unavailable until the end of the week in which it is assigned. Extensions will only be granted if you have a legitimate and documentable excuse (doctor note, note from an employer, etc.). For the final research paper and the movie paper, I will deduct 10% off your grade for each assignment for every day it is late (weeks end on Sunday and begin on Monday - e.g. submitting your paper on the Monday after it was due will result in a 10% deduction).

Extra Credit

The Washington D.C area is host to numerous Irish festivals and events throughout the year. If you attend one of these events during the spring semester, please write a review of the event and discuss any cultural or historical links you noted that are relevant to the themes of the course. Please include your ticket or a program as proof of your attendance. Additional on-campus self-enrichment opportunities are also provided on our Blackboard page. You are welcome to find other Ireland-related events on your own; please email me for approval.

This review is due by the last day of class and should be 1-2 pages in length.

What I need in your synopsis:

- What did you do/see and when was it?
- How was it related to images, ideas, or themes we have discussed? OR, if you attended a campus event, what was your impression of the event?
- What are your "take aways" from the event - how has it impacted you?

Some good local options for Irish events:
