Course Description: This course explores the history of China from the disintegration of the Han empire at the turn of the third century (200 CE) to the founding of the Qing empire in the late seventeenth century (1640s-1680s). The course is primarily intended to help students gain a fuller understanding of the most significant political, social, economic, and cultural developments in later imperial China (200-1700). This course will also challenge the stereotype of a monolithic and static "traditional China" by encouraging students to develop a more critical and complicated understanding of the diverse historical forces that helped to both integrate and divide the entity that we commonly call "China."

Required Texts: The titles below are all available for purchase at the GMU Barnes & Noble bookstore.

1. Patricia Ebrey. Cambridge Illustrated History of China. 2nd ed. Cambridge, 2010 (1999) [Abbreviated as CIHC]
2. John W. Chaffee. The Thorny Gates of Learning in Sung China: a Social History of Examinations. SUNY, 1995.
3. Morris Rossabi. Khubilai Khan: His Life and Times. California, 2009 (1988). [.pdf on JSTOR]
4. Timothy Brook. The Confusions of Pleasure: Commerce and Culture in Ming China. California, 1998. [.pdf on JSTOR]

In addition to the titles above, readings in the schedule marked by a single asterisk (*) and followed by (.pdf) are available at the "Additional Material" page on our course website (password = impchina).

Requirements & Grading: You must complete (that is, demonstrate serious engagement with) every requirement in order to receive a passing grade. The instructor reserves the final right to determine what constitutes "completion" of a requirement.

- 1. Participation (25%): I expect you to attend every one of our scheduled meetings and to be fully prepared. This means finishing the assigned readings listed for that day before coming to class. The quality of your written and oral contributions both in class and online will be considered as indicators of your participation.
- 2. In-class Map Quiz (3%): A study guide will be provided. The quiz will be taken at the beginning of class on Wed. 9/5/2018. No make-ups will be allowed (unless prior arrangement has been made).
- 3. In-class Chronology Quiz (3%): A study guide will be provided. The quiz will be taken at the beginning of class on Mon. 9/10/2018. No make-ups will be allowed (unless prior arrangement has been made).
- 4. Online Exercises (9%): You will be responsible for completing three (3) online exercises, due by 5 p.m. on Tue. 10/2/2018, Tue. 10/30/2018, and Sun. 11/25/2018. Each online exercise will count as 3% of your overall course grade. More detailed instructions will be provided.
- 5. Short Papers (35%): Over the course of the term, you will be responsible for completing two (2) short (5-7 pg.) papers due in-class on Tue. 10/9/2018 and Mon. 11/5/2018. Each paper will count as 17.5% of your overall course grade. More detailed instructions will be provided in class. Policies and procedures for submitting written work are listed below (see Course Policies, points d and e).
- 6. Take-Home Final Examination (25%): take-home essays; due in my departmental mailbox (Robinson B, Room 359) by 12:00 p.m. (noon) on Wed. 12/12/2018. No late work will be accepted for the final exam.

Course Policies, Reminders, and Helpful Tips:

a) Class absences: Students are expected to attend all meetings of the course. In the event that you must miss class, you are responsible for the contents of the lecture or discussion. Students are expected to come to class on time. Late arrivals are disruptive, and late-comers may miss important information or hand-outs.

b) Cell phones and laptop computers: During class all phones must be switched off and put away. Neither students nor instructors should compose, read, or respond to text messages during class. Students who wish to use a laptop computer for note-taking are welcome to do so. However, students who use laptops for purposes other than taking notes (i.e., email, instant messaging, internet browsing unrelated to the course) will be asked to leave and will no longer be permitted to use a computer in class. Violation of these policies will result in a significant reduction in your course participation grade.

c) Submission of written work: All written work is due at the beginning of class in hard copy on the day indicated on the syllabus. All written assignments should be typed, double-spaced, with 1-inch margins and in a 12-point font. Your name should be on the paper, and all pages should be stapled and numbered. You must submit your work in hard copy only; no email attachments will be accepted (unless prior arrangements with the instructor have been made). You should, however, retain electronic copies of all written work, and your instructor may ask for an electronic copy of your paper in order to use it as an example in teaching or to submit to a plagiarism detection site like Turnitin.com.

d) Late policy: All students are responsible for knowing and adhering to the deadlines for course assignments. Late work will be penalized ONE FULL LETTER GRADE (10 pts.) per day (including weekends & holidays). The only exceptions will be when you have explicit, advance permission from your instructor. If you anticipate a problem in completing or submitting your work on time, you must contact the instructor in a timely manner. If you do not hear back from your instructor, you should assume that your work is due on the original date. Regardless of whether or not you have been granted an extension, you must contact your instructor for how to submit late work. Late assignments will not be considered as “received” until a hard copy is in the instructor’s hands. No late work will be accepted for the take-home final exam.

e) Plagiarism: Don’t do it. It’s easy to spot & can result in expulsion from the University and loss of degree. What is plagiarism? As noted by the American Historical Association (AHA), “Writers plagiarize... when they fail to use quotation marks around borrowed material and to cite the source, use an inadequate paraphrase that makes only superficial changes to a text, or neglect to cite the source of a paraphrase.” For details see pgs. 3-4 of this document: http://www.historians.org/Documents/Plagiarism/Curriculum_Plagiarism.pdf

If you have any questions about what constitutes plagiarism, or about when or how to properly cite a source, talk to your instructor before you write! For more information see these very helpful websites:

f) Academic accommodations. If you are a student with a documented condition that warrants academic accommodations, please see me and contact the Office of Disability Services (ODS) at 703-993-2474. All academic accommodations must be arranged through ODS (<http://ods.gmu.edu/>). Additional support may be obtained through Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS): <http://caps.gmu.edu/>

g) Electronic communication. It is best to contact me at mchang5[at]gmu[dot]edu. I usually check email during normal business hours, namely M-F, 8 am-5 pm. Please allow 24-48 hours for a reply to an email request or inquiry (excluding weekends). Please sure to indicate your course number in your email subject line and include both your first and last name in your signature. For general advice on the best way to communicate via email, see:

h) Academic Integrity: All George Mason University students have agreed to abide by the letter and the spirit of the Honor Code (<http://oai.gmu.edu/the-mason-honor-code/>)

All violations of the Honor Code will be reported to the Honor Committee for review.

i) Final disclaimer: This syllabus is subject to revision as the semester proceeds. Announcements of changes will be made via e-mail, online, and during class meetings. Students are responsible for being aware of any changes.
