Course Description: This course surveys the major developments in Latin American art from the pre-Columbian period until the present day in the Andes (Peru and Bolivia) and Mesoamerica (Mexico, Central America). Broadly, this course covers an array of media (painting, sculpture, architecture, earthworks, metalwork, weaving and ceramics, among others) within its historical, political, religious, ideological, and economic contexts. Specifically, in-class lectures, readings, and museum visits focus on case studies of select regions and their artworks to understand the role of the visual arts within the various cultures of Latin America.

Course Objectives:
Throughout this course we will…
- Explore the artistic characteristics of major artworks and artists of Mesoamerica and South America ranging from the Formative Period until the present
- Consider the context (social, historical, economic, religious) in which artworks were produced, consumed, and displayed during prescribed time periods
- Examine the art-historical research, including its methods and theories, that has led to the current understanding of Latin American art

Student Learning Outcomes:
Upon completion of this course, you will be able to…
- Recognize the formal and stylistic traits of Latin American art
- Identify, discuss, and analyze artworks from Latin America
- Describe the factors surrounding the creation, consumption, and display of artworks in ancient, colonial, and modern/contemporary Latin America

Required Texts:
COURSE REQUIREMENTS

* If a student has a special learning condition or needs special equipment, please notify the instructor early in the semester.

Attendance & Participation (100 points; 22.22%)

I expect you to attend all lectures and class activities prepared to actively participate. Excused absences will be accepted for medical reasons (which may require medical documentation) and for other reasons with proper documentation (dean’s email, court summons, etc.). Excused absences are granted if the professor is notified of the absence PRIOR to the start of class. Four unexcused absences are accepted before your attendance and participation grade is reduced by 10 points for each subsequent absence. If you accrue nine or more unexcused absences then your attendance and participation grade for the class is a 0.

- 4 unexcused absences = 100 points
- 5 unexcused absences = 90 points
- 6 unexcused absences = 80 points
- 7 unexcused absences = 70 points
- 8 unexcused absences = 60 points
- 9+ unexcused absences = 0 points

Readings

Readings are required for each class and are listed on the course date in the schedule below. These readings should be completed prior to class time so you can participate in the class discussions. Be sure to take notes during class so you review them in preparation for the next segment. The in-class lectures and associated activities will deepen and reinforce your comprehension of the material.

Map Quiz (25 points; 5.56%)

Before we can talk about the cultures and countries of Latin America, you should know where they are located. Therefore, a quiz on the map of Latin American countries is on Blackboard and due on Thursday, February 7th by 2pm. You may not use your textbooks or Internet resources for the quiz.

Late quizzes will be given a grade of “0.”

Exams (200 points; 44.44%)

A midterm and a final exam will test your knowledge of image identification, vocabulary, and topical content. Each exam will be administered in class. Each exam is worth 100 points.

Exhibition Review (100 points; 22.22%)

* consult the assignment guidelines on Blackboard

For this portion of the assignment, you must go to one exhibition of Latin American art in Washington DC Virginia and write a review of the exhibition. There is a list of acceptable exhibitions on Blackboard. You may only attend a museum not on this list if it is approved by the instructor. Following your visit, you will write a 900 to 1500-word (3 to 5 pages) paper about the exhibition and your analysis of it.

- Due by 2pm on April 18 on Blackboard and as a hard copy in class.

Contemporary Artist Discussion Post (25 points; 5.56%)

Pick one contemporary Latin American artist (1950 to present) and post a brief paragraph (3 to 5 sentences) about their work on the Discussion Board on Blackboard. The artist cannot be one that we have previously discussed in class. Include links to information that you used to write your paragraph (videos included). I recommend being creative and pulling in artists and art forms that we haven’t previously discussed (photography, film, fashion, etc.), but the choice of artist is entirely yours.

Due April 29 at 11:59pm (I will review them and put them into a PowerPoint prior to class on 4/30)

Final grades are official and will not be changed following submission to the university. If you have questions concerning your grade prior to the end of the semester, please contact me. It is the student’s responsibility to stay up to date on their standing in the course since no grade changes will be offered following the submission of final grades.

COURSE POLICIES

Make-up and Extension Policy
Since images are shown for exams, it is difficult to give make-up exams. Please make every attempt to attend exam days. Make-up exams will only be given in documented emergency situations (hospitalization, death in the family, etc.) and will only be given at the discretion of the instructor. Make-up exams will only be given if the instructor is notified within 24 hours of the exam’s finish. Exams must be taken within one week of the original date of the exam.
Extensions on assignments will only be given in documented emergency situations and at the discretion of the instructor. Late assignments will be given a grade of “0.”

Email
GMU requires you to activate your GMU e-mail account to receive official campus communications. If you prefer to use another address, you must activate the e-mail forwarder. I will use GMU addresses exclusively.
Blackboard
Required and recommended readings, assignments, and discussion readings will be posted on Blackboard. I recommend checking Blackboard at least once a week to stay up to date with course content. Please familiarize yourself with the Blackboard page at the beginning of the semester.
Grades will be posted to Blackboard within a week of submission, unless otherwise informed by the instructor.

Classroom Conduct
I expect each student to attend class prepared for that day’s topic. Appropriate behavior is expected at all times. This includes, but is not limited to, not distracting other students and/or the instructor, being respectful, critically engaging with other students without being aggressive, and staying on topic. If you are in doubt about what is appropriate behavior by my standards, please ask in advance.
Laptops may only be used for course-related purposes. If laptop use is being abused (i.e., not being used for course-related purposes), I reserve the right to ban laptops from the classroom unless a student has a documented learning need.
Cell phones should be placed on silent and should be placed out of sight. If you’re going to take notes with your phone, then inform the instructor early in the semester.

Academic Dishonesty
Plagiarism is taken very seriously and is included in GMU’s Honor Code (https://oai.gmu.edu/mason-honor-code/full-honor-code-document/). Plagiarism is when you take someone else’s words and use them as your own without proper citations (for this class, Chicago Manual of Style). You cannot use more than TWO WORDS in a row from a source without giving a citation. Self-plagiarism (taking your own words from a paper for one class and using them in a paper for another class) is also a serious offense.
If you are unsure of how or when to cite a source and/or what plagiarism is, then talk to the instructor, the library, or the Writing Center. Possible infractions of the Honor Code will be brought to the attention of the Honor Committee.
For real: this is serious. In certain cases, you can be expelled for plagiarism.

Accommodations
Accommodations will be made for students with documented disabilities, in accordance with law and university policies. Students requiring accommodations must register with the University’s Disability Resource Center and produce documentation. Please do this well before the first test or presentation in case alternate arrangements need to be made.
