Office hours (time set aside for student walk-ins and student meetings): to be announced, or by appointment

Please note: professors are to be addressed by the professional title as given by the university and their peers: in this case “Professor” and/or “Doctor” (not “Mr.” “Ms.” “Miss” “Mrs.” These titles indicate marital status and/or gender identity and are not professional titles in Universities.)

Course Description:

This course will introduce students to the art and architecture of ancient Egypt. Through slide lectures, reading, assigned exercises, and discussions we will examine key monuments and objects of art. We will explore the role of painting, sculpture, and architecture in the formation and communication of cultural identity and the role of religion and worldview on artistic production. This course has no prerequisites and presumes no prior knowledge of Art History.

COURSE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES.

In this course, students will:

- Learn to analyze and discuss art and architecture.
- Learn the standard major periods of ancient Egyptian art.
- Learn to recognize major monuments from each period.
- Study the relationship between the history and visual culture of each period.
- Apply archeology and primary texts to art history;
- Become familiar with some of the area's museums.

- COURSE REQUIREMENTS:
- Class attendance and exercises with notes to be handed in.
- Assigned readings, including websites and documents on the Internet/Blackboard.
- One paper based on museum visits, with a graded outline and first list bibliography to be revised.
- a midterm and a final exam.

- TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS:
- GMU email accounts—only GMU accounts will get announcements and grading access.
- Ability to find and print on-line text documents from the Internet and Blackboard.
- Computerized word-processing with spell-checkers and decent printers for all written work.

Required TEXTBOOKS:

Gay Robins, The Art of Ancient Egypt, Revised Edition, Harvard University Press, Cambridge Massachusetts, 2008.

Douglas J. Brewer and Emily Teeter, Egypt and the Egyptians, Second Edition, Cambridge, Cambridge University Press, 2007.

Shaw, Ian (ed.) The Oxford History of Ancient Egypt, Oxford University Press, 2000.

Additional on-line readings may be required as well. URLs will be announced in class and linked to the course Blackboard site. This syllabus may be modified as the semester progresses, although students will be notified of any changes they are ultimately responsible for keeping themselves informed and up to date.

LECTURE AND READING SCHEDULE
(Students will be notified of any changes in advance)

CLASS POLICIES

Attendance is necessary; much of the material will only be covered in our lectures. You are responsible for getting notes, and for all consequences of missed classes. Class participation will affect your grade.

Classroom atmosphere. Courtesy and common sense, please. Talking during lectures, wandering in and out, cell phones, and eating food are all badly distracting to everyone else. Disruptive individuals can be asked to leave, according to GMU policy.

Laptop computers are fine for taking notes in class. No Facebook, Solitaire, etc. Phones will be turned off at all times, of course, as a courtesy to all. No computers or telephones may be used during tests unless special permission is obtained due to a specific disability (see below).

Late work will be graded down five points per weekday and ten points over a weekend. Plan ahead--last-minute hard-disk and printer failures do not constitute legitimate excuses. By the final exam, all missing work becomes F work. Make-up tests and elaborate medical excuses will require verification with a physician's or associate dean's excuse. There will be no make-up final exams.

English as a Second Language: If English is not your first language, I will be happy to help you do your best in the writing assignments. The final result must be written in good standard English. Please work with The Writing Center in Robinson I, Room A116. <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/resources/> and <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu/> Call them at (703) 993-1200, or see their web page for English language help, at: <http://writingcenter.gmu.edu>. You may also want to work with GMU's English Language Institute (ELI). Call them at (703) 993-3664, or visit their website at <http://eli.gmu.edu>

Learning disabilities. If you are a student with disabilities, and you need academic accommodations, please see me and contact the Office of Disabilities Resources (ODS) or 703-993-2474. Website: <http://ds.gmu.edu/> All academic accommodations must be arranged through that office.

Religious holidays. This syllabus is arranged according to the George Mason University calendar. If you observe a religious holiday that the University does not, please let me know and I will make necessary accommodations for you (but not for the whole class).

Auditors are welcome to sit and listen, if there is room. If they would like to participate more actively, that's fine with me if (!!) you are keeping up with the assigned class reading.

Honor Code and Academic honesty is expected in all tests and writing, according to the GMU Honor Code. “Student members of the George Mason University community pledge not to cheat, plagiarize, steal, or lie in matters related to academic work.” Please respect the Honor Code, our classroom standards, your fellow students, and yourself. Please report violations to the Honor Committee, using the procedures explained in the website.

GRADING POLICIES

TESTS must be taken on the scheduled date. If there has been an emergency, it must be documented by a note from the dean’s office or your doctor. In those cases, there will be one make-up test scheduled. Tests will be graded by percentage.

FINAL GRADES

Based on the average of your assignments, tests, and class participation grades:

Test 1: 20%
Paper, first outline 15%
Paper, final 20%
Final exam: 25%
Participation 10%

Final grades may be raised or lowered from strict average in the following circumstances:

Class participation improves/deteriorates
Reliability is stellar (always on time, always prepared, etc.) or poor (bad attendance, never prepared)
Significant improvement over the semester (Student begins semester poorly but then does better)

Grades will be calculated as follows:

A = 100% to 93%, or 4.00
A- = 92% to 90%, or 3.67
B+ = 89% to 87%, or 3.33
B = 86% to 83 %, or 3.00
B- = 82% to 80 %, or 2.67
C+ = 79% to 77 %, or 2.33
C = 76% to 73 %, or 2.00
C- = 72% to 70 %, or 1.67
D = 60% to 66%, or 1.0
F = below 60% receives no credit

I may award a final A+ in rare instances: 4.0 average plus unusually good writing and class participation.

WRITTEN WORK may be graded by points, or by the following criteria, as appropriate:

A = Startlingly good, exceeding expectations, and well written. Must be imaginative; NOT given for simply following directions.

B = Good effort with a good result.

C = Perfunctory; or, tried but missed the point; or, did something well but it wasn't the assignment; or, good idea but careless or sloppy.

D = Warning: accepted under protest.

F = Unacceptable as college-level work.

Paper grades will be lowered for lateness, sloppiness, lack of proofreading, bad English, lack of necessary documentation/supporting evidence/footnoting, faulty logic, or failure to follow directions for the assignment. Please study the directions for writing assignments, elsewhere in this syllabus.

Late written work: Papers are due in class in hard copy on the day specified. After that, late papers will be lowered five points a day, or half a grade, during the work week (Mon-Fri) and lowered ten points over a weekend. Note that this makes even “A” work into “F” work after ten days. If you need an extension, you must ask for it before the due date if you want to avoid a penalty.

Class participation grade:

“A” Level: Great class participation—student demonstrates understanding of subject and the ability to think critically about it, makes connections with other students and encourages friendly and positive discussion, no “one-upping.”

“B” level: Normal class participation—student shows up on time, keeps up with classwork, participates in group activities, does not cause problems

“C” level: Student shows poor class attendance, does not pay attention, is not up to date with reading, is disruptive, etc.

“D-F” level: Student will get a D-F in class participation automatically if they use their personal technology devices in any way that is not connected to the classroom. IE no Facebook, Tinder, Snapchat, etc. etc. etc. You are allowed to monitor emergency campus alerts of course.

TWO PIECES OF GRADED WORK MISSING WILL BE GROUNDS FOR FAILING THE COURSE REGARDLESS OF YOUR PRECISE AVERAGE.

IF YOU FLUNK THE FINAL EXAM, WITH AN F ON ANOTHER MAJOR (20%) PIECE OF WORK, YOU WILL RECEIVE A FAILING GRADE FOR THE WHOLE COURSE. To pass this course you must demonstrate mastery of the material from all parts of the course.

Outside of this classroom:

If you or anyone you know has been subjected to any form of harassment (due to race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, etc.), please consider a visit to GMU’s Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights. They will be supportive and discreet. GMU is proud of its diverse student body and committed to protecting the rights and the dignity of all students.
