GLOA 400/HIST 388/RUSS 354/SOCI 321: Post-Soviet Life around the World
Tentative Syllabus

In this course, we will explore the “fall of communism” and how the former Soviet Union and Eastern Europe have transformed since 1989. What exactly happened in the late 1980s and specifically in 1989? Why did the Soviet Union end? We then turn to the ways that people have sought to survive and create new cultural and political practices within the market relations and commodification in the post-Soviet era. We will explore a wide range of topics, including nationalism, environmentalism, politics, oligarchs, violence, vampires, workers, gender, the self, religion, vacation houses, memory, and socialism today. We will compare experiences across post-Soviet space: Central and Eastern Europe, the Balkans, the former Soviet Union (including Central Asia and the Baltics), Cuba, Nicaragua, and Mozambique. We will also consider the United States as part of post-Soviet life. Finally, how do people remember the socialist past? How are they reestablishing relations with the Soviet past to envision their future?

Course Objectives
By the end of this course, you should be able to

• Understand the historic events and the changing social life since 1980s in the former Soviet Bloc.
• Discuss major terms, themes, and debates in post-socialist studies.
• Analyze and evaluate scholarly readings, fiction, and film in the field.
• Learn basic information about a wide range of countries of the former Soviet Bloc.
• Explore post-Soviet life as a global phenomenon.
• Write a Fulbright application to study in the country of your choice.

Required Texts:
• Print Hub (in the Hub) has our course reader with all the required readings. The course reader must be brought each day to class.

Course Requirements

- Class participation: 10%
- Presentation: 5%
- Midterm exam: 35%
- Final project (Fulbright application): 40%
- Final exam: 10%
- Extra-credit printed reader check (4 out of 5): 1%

Class participation: Participation includes attendance, being on time, bringing the reading, asking questions, and participating in discussion. Also, you must meet with me once in office hours to talk about your Fulbright proposal, anytime on or before November 7th.

Presentation: Each student will make a 5-minute presentation on one of the countries of the day. The presentation must include powerpoint (or other related application) with a map of the country, three basic facts, and one interesting bit of information. I will demonstrate the presentation style during the first day of class.

Final project: Students will complete (but not submit) a Fulbright application to a country in the former Soviet Bloc of their choice. In the midterm exam, students will state a country and a research topic for the Fulbright application, which they can change at any time before the final exam.

Midterm and final exams: These two tests are intended to evaluate your understanding of the main concepts in the course and basic information about the countries of the day. The midterm exam will have multiple choice and essays, as well as a separate section in which to state your country and research topic chosen for the Fulbright application. The final exam will only be multiple choice.

Extra-credit article check
I will check to make certain that students have the required printed reader four times during the semester. Three of these checks will go towards a 1% extra credit.

Additional Items:

- Academic Integrity: I will not tolerate plagiarism. Mason is an Honor Code university; please see the University Catalog for a full description of the code and the honor committee process. The principle of academic integrity is taken very seriously and violations are treated gravely. What does academic integrity mean in this course? Essentially this: when you are responsible for a task, you will perform that task. When you rely on someone else’s work in an aspect of the performance of that task, you will give full credit in the proper, accepted form. Another aspect of academic integrity is the free play of ideas. Vigorous discussion and debate are encouraged in this course, with the firm expectation that all aspects of the class will be conducted with civility and respect for differing ideas, perspectives, and traditions. When in doubt (of any kind) please ask for guidance and clarification.

- Mason Email Accounts: Mason uses only Mason e-mail accounts to communicate with enrolled students. Students must activate their Mason e-mail account, use it to communicate with their department and other administrative units, and check it regularly for important university information including messages related to this class. See http://masonlive.gmu.edu for more information.

- Office of Disability Services: If you are a student with a disability and you need academic accommodations, please see me and contact the Office of Disability Services at 703.993.2474 or http://ods.gmu.edu. All academic accommodations must be arranged through that office.
