Course Requirements

As students, your strong commitment, hard work, and consistent cooperation will be the keys to success in this course and will also contribute positively to the progress of the entire class. To ensure that learning experience is enjoyable and fruitful, it is important that you meet the requirements and follow the rules outlined below.

1. Attendance. Class attendance is crucial. Students should keep in mind that part of their grade is based on attendance and that absences count against them regardless of the reasons for the absence. There will be no penalty for the first two missed classes. After that, each absence will reduce the final grade by one percentage point. *3 tardiness = 2 early departure = 1 absence. If a student misses more than 10 classes (10 absences or more) he or she would be fail.

2. Preparation & In-Class Performance. Cell phones must be turned off before class. It is very important to keep up with class work. It will be reflected in the score of attitude. Students are required to preview and review the materials covered in each session. A detailed session-by-session schedule is provided for this purpose. Students are expected to participate in all class activities. In-class participation and performance is graded for each session.

3. Quizzes. After each lesson in the textbook, there will be a quiz. There will be no make-up tests. Students are allowed to drop 1 test grade (including zero for a missed test) out of 6. More details will be given in class.

4. Homework Assignments. Homework will be due on the day marked in the session-by-session syllabus. This homework assignment is due before the next class. Please hand in your homework before class. Late homework will be penalized 50 percent of the possible score. More details will be announced on Blackboard or in class.

5. Midterm & Final Exam.

There are midterm and final exam. The midterm exam will cover Lesson 7 - L9 D1, the final exam will cover Lesson 9 D2 - L11 D2.

1) Oral Test

In order to encourage students to use what they have learned and improve their speaking, students are required to give an oral test at the midterm and final exam. Students are expected to incorporate as much of the studied materials/grammar/vocabulary as possible, and to be creative in terms of the form and content of their presentations. For example, the presentation can be a role-play, the telling of a story, or the description of a picture or scene related to what is covered in each lesson. More details will be given in class.

2) Written Exam

The comprehensive exam will test each student's listening, reading, and writing skills, and knowledge of grammar and cultural topics. More details will be given in class.

Students' final grades are composed as follows:

You are expected to be present for all examinations. Students who miss an exam will receive 0% on that test. There will be NO makeup given for missing any exam.

※Please note: Students who experience a rare emergency outside their control may receive an accommodation if they provide substantial written documentation of the emergency. If such an emergency arises, students must contact me by email before the start of the exam and provide written evidence as soon as possible after the exam. I have the final judgment whether an absence is extraordinary and whether I will excuse an absence. If you miss Midterm Exam and your absence is excused, you will receive the same score for the missed Midterm Exam as you receive in Final Exam. For students who miss the Final exam for an extraordinary reason as described above, I reserve the right to administer the student a different exam from their classmates' exam. But the students who miss the final exam with an acceptable excuse may be penalized 10 percent of the possible score.
