Course Description

Welcome! This is an online course. All content is provided online via the course webpage on Blackboard. The purpose of this course is to provide Psychology majors with information that will help them to select and pursue a career based on personal interests, abilities, and skills. We will discuss career options in Psychology and what students can do to increase their chances of success in their chosen career path. Students will be asked to engage in a number of activities throughout the semester that are designed to help them prepare for a career in the social sciences. Given the unique topics that we will be covering, this course is designed to be a resource- and knowledge-acquisition workshop in which students will be directed to various tools that may be of use to them in pursuing their professional goals. The aim of this course is not to store up facts, names, or dates, but rather to develop career readiness in the social sciences.

Blackboard Login Instructions: Online materials for this class can be accessed through Blackboard. You must check our course webpage frequently for course content, assignments, and discussions. Access to MyMason and GMU email are required to participate successfully in this course. Check the IT Support Center website. Navigate to the Student Support page for help and information about Blackboard. In the menu bar to the left you will find all the tools you need to become familiar with for this course. Take time to learn each. Make sure you run a system check a few days before class. Become familiar with the attributes of Blackboard and online learning.

- a. Honor Code: George Mason University has an Honor Code, which requires all members of this community to maintain the highest standards of academic honesty and integrity. Cheating, plagiarism, lying, and stealing are all prohibited. All violations of the Honor Code will be reported to the Honor Committee. The Code can be found here. It is your responsibility to see me if you have questions about these policies.
- b. Academic Integrity: Academic integrity refers to honest and ethical behavior in all aspects of academic activity. This includes: not cheating on homework assignments (e.g., copying the work of others), not passing off someone else's ideas as your own (plagiarism), not engaging in dishonesty of any kind with regard to your class participation and assignments.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use of another person's labor, another person's ideas, another person's words, or another person's assistance. Unless otherwise stated in class, all work done for class is expected to be the individual effort of the student presenting the work. Any assistance must be reported to the instructor. If the work has entailed consulting other resources -- journals, books, or other media -- these resources must be cited in a manner appropriate to the course. Everything used from other sources -- suggestions for organization of ideas, ideas themselves, or actual language -- must be cited. Failure to cite borrowed material constitutes plagiarism. Undocumented use of materials from the World Wide Web is plagiarism. If you are caught plagiarizing or cheating, you will fail the assignment, and, depending upon the severity of the violation, you may fail the class.

- c. Official Communications via GMU E-mail: Mason uses electronic mail to provide official information to students. Examples include communications from course instructors, notices from the library, notices about academic standing, financial aid information, class materials, assignments, questions, and instructor feedback. Students are responsible for the content of university communication sent to their Mason e-mail account and are required to activate that account and check it regularly. In the event that Mason cancels classes, I will notify you via email regarding any changes to scheduled assignments.
- d. Enrollment: Students are responsible for verifying their enrollment in this class. Schedule adjustments should be made by the deadlines published in the Schedule of Classes (available from the Registrar's Website: registrar.gmu.edu). After the last day to drop a class, withdrawing from this class requires the approval of the dean and is only allowed for nonacademic reasons.
