Course Information & Methods
This course examines late twentieth century and twenty-first century art through major movements and approaches, such as institutional critique and re-envisioning the viewer’s role. We will analyze the historical, political, social and theoretical contexts surrounding contemporary art production. Each class meeting involves illustrated lectures and exercises. In addition to assessments, each student will visit the Hirshhorn Museum to select and study one artwork made after 1980. This museum project includes close visual analysis, some research, and writing.
1) Readings, Lectures, PowerPoint presentations, and group exercises.
2) Close analysis of assigned texts
3) 1 Quiz
4) 2 Tests
5) Hirshhorn Museum Visit Paper.

Course Objectives
To develop complex understandings of contemporary art, its theories and histories. To visit a contemporary art museum, discern one’s interests, select an object to study, closely analyze this object and report your findings in a paper.

Course Expectations
1) Read scholarly art historical writing and learn to assess its strengths and weaknesses.
2) Complete all assigned readings prior to each class meeting.
3) Active and respectful participation in class
4) Submit work on time
5) Follow the Course Schedule. I teach 200 students, so individual schedules are not manageable.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS / POLICIES

Communication
Use your GMU e-mail account for correspondence and Blackboard in conjunction with an official GMU email address. I communicate to your GMU account of record.

Please address questions in office hours, via email or by appointment. I usually reply within 24 hours of receiving your message (sometimes longer on the weekend). Please include your name and course number in your email.

Etiquette
Please be respectful and constructive in our course interactions.

Attendance Policy
Attendance is tracked through the tools available in Blackboard to make sure that you are accessing the course readings, videos, and assessments.

Readings
The course Schedule on Blackboard lists each week’s readings and assignments. Complete the assigned reading before the scheduled class. Comprehensive reading is enhanced by good note taking.

Evaluation and Grading Policy
Your grade is based on the following:

Quiz (15% of grade) This short and essay quiz assess student comprehension of the reading.
2 Tests (2 X 27.5% = 55% of grade)
Tests will assess your understanding of the core artists, artistic movements, concepts, and strategies covered in the readings, lectures, and PowerPoints. Good notetaking from reading before class and from class video lectures will aid in good performance on these assessments. A study guide will be posted one week before each test. Make-up tests are different from in-class tests, so it is in your best interest to take tests on time. They open Friday afternoons at 3 pm and close Saturday morning at 11 am.

Museum Visit Paper (30% of grade)
This paper examines one post-1980 artwork at the Hirshhorn Museum that was seen in person specifically for this class. This 3-page, well-written, and thoughtful analysis of one artwork includes visual analysis and some research.

2. Complete two Questionnaires
20 Questions for Formal Analysis - document on Blackboard
20 Questions for Contextual Analysis - document on Blackboard. This one requires some research.

3. Write a 3-page paper combining ½ page Formal Analysis, ½ page contextual analysis plus 2 pages focused on your personal response to this artwork. Submit Selfie Cover Sheet and Paper through Blackboard.

Participation
As part of a constructive learning community we agree to read assignments, take notes, be prepared, and participate actively in this asynchronous course.

Late or Missed Assignments Policy:
Do not miss your quiz, tests, or paper deadlines. There are rare exceptions in the case of medical or family emergency, but you must communicate with me within 24 hours of the assignment.

Academic Integrity: upholding academic integrity:
- The integrity of the University community is affected by the individual choices made by each of us. Mason has an Honor Code with clear guidelines regarding academic integrity. Three fundamental and rather simple principles to follow at all times are that: (1) all work submitted be your own; (2) when using the work or ideas of others, including fellow students, give full credit through accurate citations; and (3) if you are uncertain about the ground rules on a particular assignment, ask for clarification. No grade is important enough to justify academic misconduct. Plagiarism means using the words, opinions, or factual information from another person without giving the person credit. Paraphrased material must also be cited. Plagiarism is not tolerated in the academic setting. If you plagiarize or are caught cheating, you will be reported to the Honor Committee office. If you submit plagiarized work, it will receive an automatic zero. Please review the Mason Honor Code at http://oai.gmu.edu/. We are bound by the honor code and pledge not to lie, cheat, steal or plagiarize. For further clarification, please read the following in-depth explanation - https://cs.gmu.edu/resources/honor-code/statement-on-academic-integrity/

The Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990
- If you have a documented learning disability or other condition that may affect academic performance you should: 1) make sure this documentation is on file with Office of Disability Services (ODS) at 703-993-2474 (SUB I, Rm. 4205; http://ds.gmu.edu) to determine the accommodations you need; and 2) talk with me to discuss your accommodation needs by September 15. All academic accommodations must be arranged through that office.

Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Interpersonal Violence
George Mason University is committed to providing a learning, living and working environment that is free from discrimination and a campus that is free of sexual misconduct and other acts of interpersonal violence in order to promote community well-being and student success. We encourage students who believe that they have been sexually harassed, assaulted or subjected to sexual misconduct to seek assistance and support. University Policy 1202: Sexual Harassment and Misconduct speaks to the specifics of Mason’s process, the resources, and the options available to students. As a faculty member and designated "Responsible Employee," I am required to report all disclosures of sexual assault, interpersonal violence, and stalking to Mason’s Title IX Coordinator per university policy 1412. You may speak to Mason's Title IX Coordinator Jennifer Hammat, by calling 703-993-8730 or email cde@gmu.edu. If you wish to speak with someone confidentially, please contact the Student Support and Advocacy Center (703-993-3686), Counseling and Psychological Services (703-993-2380), Student Health Services, or the 24-hour Sexual and Intimate Partner Violence Crisis Line for Mason 703-380-1434.

Privacy
- Students must use their MasonLive email account to receive important University information, including communications related to this class. I will not respond to messages sent from or send messages to a non-Mason email address.

Student conduct in the classroom
This class holds and values a diversity of perspectives. As a student, you are expected to conduct yourself in an orderly and cooperative manner. In preparation for a professional life, your cooperation is expected through courteous behavior and participation that does not distract from learning.

Course Repetition Policy
Beginning in Fall 2018, there is a limit of three graded attempts for this course. A W does not count as a graded attempt. Please see AP.1.3.4 in the University catalog and consult with your academic advisor if you have any questions.

Withdrawal from classes
Before withdrawing from classes, students should consult their instructor as well as other appropriate university offices. Withdrawing from classes may negatively impact a student’s financial aid award and his or her semester charges.

Final Note - By choosing to remain in this class, you agree to abide by the syllabus and its contents. Students are required to acknowledge that they have read and understood ALL requirements/policies listed on this syllabus. Please sign the acknowledgement statement below noting that you will comply with the listed course requirements/expectations/policies. DUE: February 4, 2022
