The Second World War raged from the late 1930s until August of 1945. By the time Japan signed the final Instrument of Surrender, more than 60 million people—the majority of them civilians—had lost their lives in the fighting. The war raged across the globe, involving all the world’s major powers, and combat occurred on four continents, in the sky, on the oceans and under the seas. The war changed geopolitics in ways that reverberated throughout the twentieth century and continue to this day.

This course traces the causes, course, and outcome of the greatest calamity in human history. It examines the political, social, and economic issues that led to war; the home fronts, war leadership, diplomacy, combat motivation, and grand strategy; the Holocaust; the political and social legacies of the conflict; and the way that nations remember and commemorate the war.

Grading

Course performance will be determined by your participation in class, two written assignments, and a final exam. There are seven separate opportunities to complete the written assignments, and, as the writing handout indicates, each assignment is different in both topic and form. You must do one of the first four assignments and one of the last three assignments. Within those guidelines, you are free to choose two assignments that fit your interests and schedule.

Assignments are due in class on the date indicated on the syllabus. You can submit your essay through the BlackBoard portal.

No late assignments will be accepted. No exceptions.

You are also free to do more than two of the assignments; in that case, your two highest scores will count towards your final grade, and the lower scores will be dropped. The system is intended to give you maximum flexibility; do not allow that flexibility to create problems for you. If you have not completed two assignments by the end of the course, you will receive a failing grade of 50 for each missing assignment.
The final grade will break down as follows:

Participation: 10%
First paper: 30%
Second paper: 30%
Final Exam: 30%

Papers are due at 5pm on the following days:
- First paper: September 26
- Second paper: October 3
- Third paper: October 12
- Fourth paper: October 26
- Fifth paper: November 9
- Sixth paper: November 21
- Seventh paper: November 30

The grading scale is as follows:
- A- 90-93; A 94-100
- B- 80-83; B 84-86; B+ 87-89
- C- 70-73; C 74-76; C+ 77-79
- D 64-66; D+ 67-69
- F 50

COURSE POLICIES:

_A note on plagiarism._ Each assignment completed as part of this course is bound by the University’s Honor Code and its strict rules regarding plagiarism. Plagiarism entails presenting someone else’s words, work, or ideas without proper acknowledgement, or borrowing the sequence of ideas, the arrangement of material, or the pattern of thought of someone else without proper acknowledgment. Whether the source is another historical work, an internet source, a classmate, or your roommate does not matter; failure to cite the source properly constitutes plagiarism, the most serious academic violation one can commit. Students found plagiarizing in this class will fail the course. These assignments are designed so that it is easier to simply write the essay than to cheat.

Classroom Behavior. Active participation in class discussions is a vital part of mastering this set of skills and information. (Individual participation is weighted as ten percent of the overall grade to reflect its critical importance.) In order to maximize opportunities for every student to participate constructively and to minimize distractions, a few simple guidelines will be observed:

- civil, respectful interactions among _all_ class participants
- NO ELECTRONIC DEVICES—cell phones, smart phones, laptops, and so on. If it runs on electricity and it does not fulfill a medical requirement, switch it off for the duration of class.
